Visual Story for visiting the Royal Concert Hall
Nottingham

I am going to see a show at the Royal Concert Hall

When I get inside the Royal Concert Hall it may be busy, so I will have to be patient and calm

If I want to I can buy a programme about the show from a programme seller

I could also buy some sweets or a drink from the kiosk

The Royal Concert Hall has five floors in total. My seats will be in the Stalls, on Tier 1 or on Tier 2. To get to my seats I may have to climb a few stairs or use the lift

Before we take our seats in the auditorium I can use the toilet. If I need to use the toilet, I can ask the person I am with

We will show our tickets to an usher in a uniform who will look like this

The usher will look at our tickets and tell us where we need to go. The letters and numbers on the tickets tell us where we need to sit. It is not a choice.

Then we will go inside the auditorium. The Royal Concert Hall is very big and there are lots of seats!

My seat will look like this

If I can't see the stage clearly I can ask an adult for a booster seat to sit on

There may be an announcement asking the audience to turn off their mobile phones. The Royal Concert Hall will get darker and everyone needs to be quiet

When the show starts I will see performers coming on to the stage. I will try and be as quiet as I can so I can hear everything

Seeing a show at the Royal Concert Hall is a bit like seeing something on TV or in a film but the people are right there in front of you on the stage

Sometimes different parts of a show can be loud. If the sound bothers me I can put my hands over my ears or wear my ear defenders

In the show there will be a break. This is called the interval. During the interval I can use the toilet or have a drink or snack

After the interval everyone will come back and sit down in their seats again. It will get darker and quieter again just like at the beginning of the show

At the end of the show, the performers may come out on to the stage and bow. Many people will clap and cheer so the performers will know how much they liked the show

If I want to clap I can. If the clapping is too loud, I can cover my ears or wear my ear defenders

After the show has finished we will leave the Royal Concert Hall

I am very excited to visit the Royal Concert Hall!
