The Gruffalo's Child & Stick Man Relaxed Performance

Visual Story for visiting the Royal
Concert Hall Nottingham
Sunday 23 December

I am going to see The Gruffalo's Child & The Stick Man!

The Gruffalo's Child & Stick Man is a concert that features the two films accompanied by a live orchestra

The Gruffalo's Child and Stick Man is at the Royal Concert Hall

When we get inside the Royal Concert Hall it may be busy, so I will have to be patient and calm

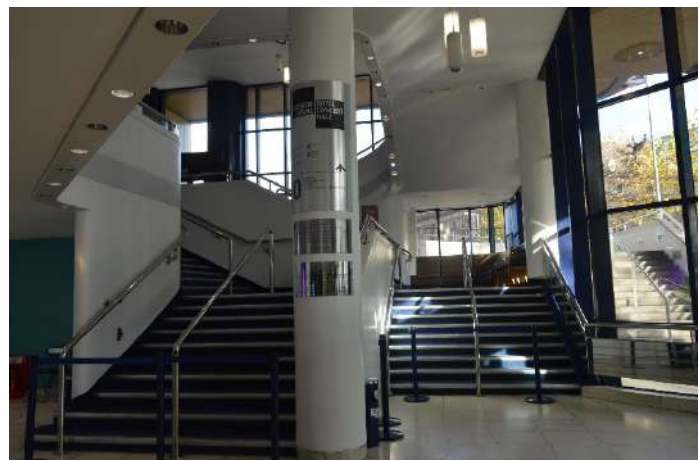

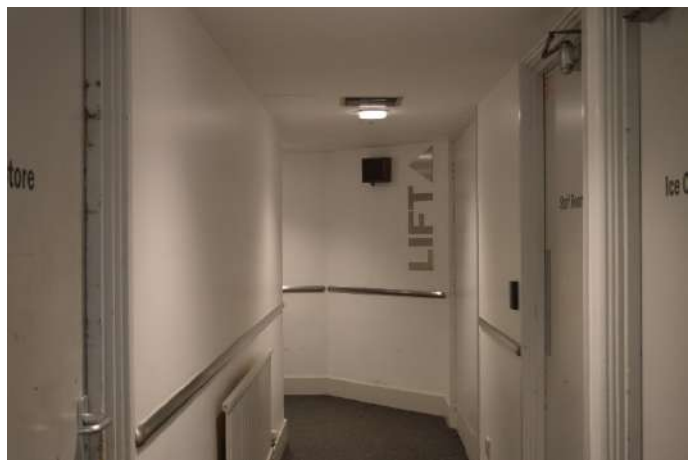

We will show our tickets to an steward in a uniform who will look like this

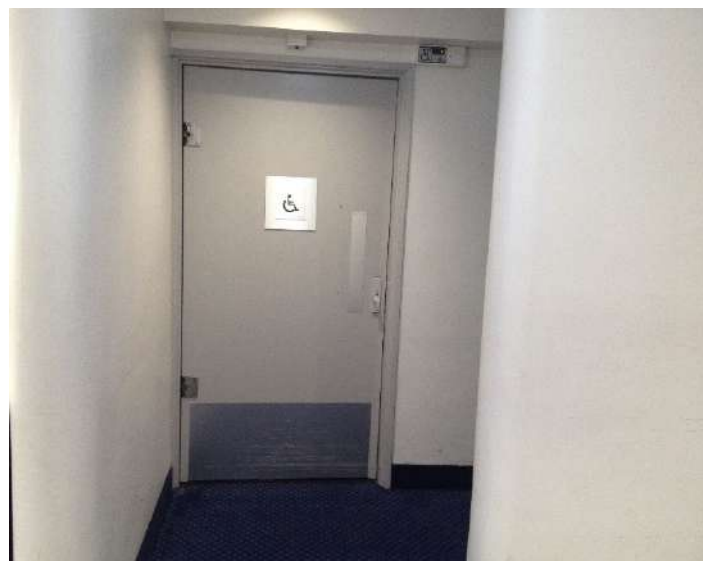

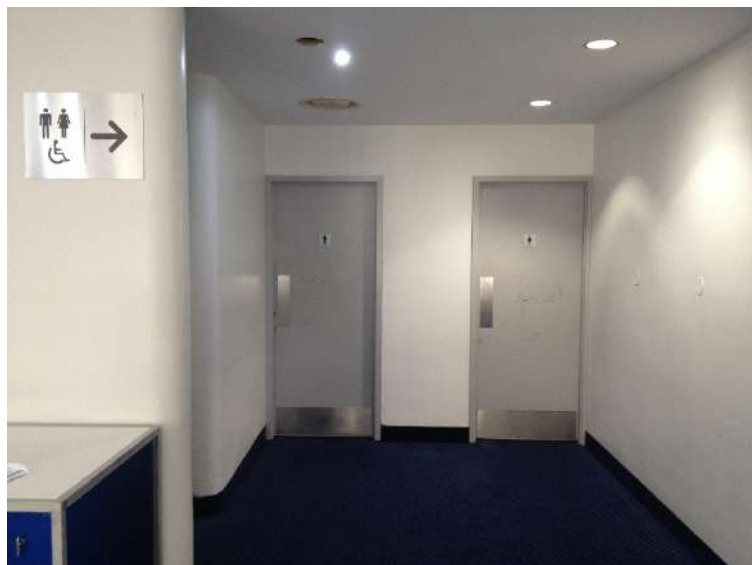

The steward will look at our tickets and tell us where we need to go. The letters and numbers on the tickets tell us where we have to sit. It is not a choice

My seats will be in the Stalls or on Tier 1. To get to my seats I may have to climb a few stairs or use the lift

Before we take our seats in the auditorium I can use the toilet. If I need to use the toilet, I can ask the person I am with

Then we will go inside the auditorium. The Royal Concert Hall is very big and there are lots of seats!

My seat will look like this

If I can't see the stage clearly I can ask an adult for a booster seat to sit on

There may be an announcement asking the audience to turn off their mobile phones. The Royal Concert Hall will get darker and everyone needs to be quiet. When the concert starts I will try and be as quiet as I can so I can hear everything

For this concert, the films will be shown on a large screen above the orchestra

The conductor will introduce the first film, The Gruffalo's Child and the Orchestra will start to play.

Some parts of the concert may be loud. If the sound bothers me I can put my hands over my ears or wear my ear defenders

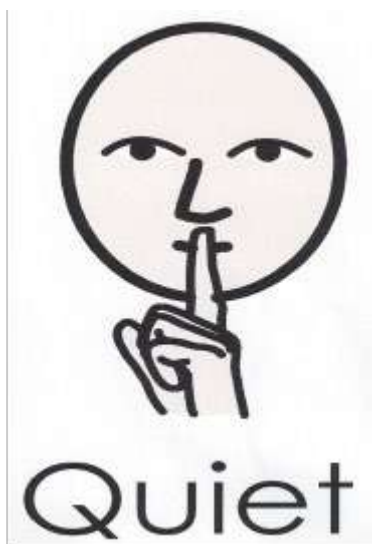

In the show there will be a break. This is called the interval. During the interval I can use the toilet or have a drink or snack

After the interval everyone will come back and sit down in their seats again. It will get darker and quieter again just like at the beginning of the show

The Conductor will introduce the second film, The Stick Man and the Orchestra will start to play.

Some parts of the music may be loud. If the sound bothers me I can put my hands over my ears or wear my ear defenders

At the end of the show, the Orchestra may stand up on the stage and bow. Many people will clap and cheer so the Orchestra will know how much they liked the show

If I want to clap I can. If the clapping is too loud, I can cover my ears or wear my ear defenders

After the show has finished we will leave the Royal Concert Hall

I am very excited to visit the Royal Concert Hall!
