Now Hear This is a fun-packed, fast-paced introduction to classical music and the instruments of the orchestra for schoolchildren aged 8 to 11, with the chance to join the world famous Hallé in making a sensational sound.

Your guide to the music is a brand new presenter, Ruth Rosales and this year's concert celebrates the continent of America – from the cool sound of Latin-American dances to the film scores of John Williams, in an hour of inspiring music.

The Hallé's Education Director, Steve Pickett, has arranged Chuck Rio's Tequila and his own piece Carrots & Potatoes for your young musicians to perform with the Hallé. These 'Come and Play' pieces offer an amazing and inspiring experience that your students will never forget.

There are also two songs for everyone to sing along with: Let's Cheer for Mardi Gras by Steve Pickett and Neil Bennison, and Mary Green & Julie Stanley's Ai Caramba Samba which is brought to you in partnership with Out of the Ark Music.

To help you learn these in the classroom, the scores, parts and MP3 sound files for all these pieces will be available to download from the Nottinghamshire Music Hub website at www.inspireculture.org.uk/nowhearthis2022 once you have booked your tickets.

Now Hear This also offers fantastic opportunities to make music come alive. We offer the unique opportunity to Meet the Musician, when a Hallé player visits your school, as well as support materials for students taking the Discover and Explore Arts Awards.

The performance is open to all primary schools, so...

3. Meet the Musician

With 'Meet the Musician', a Hallé player will visit your school before 17 June, lead some creative music work based on the concert and meet your school party at the concert where possible. A 'Meet the Musician' session will contribute towards your students' Arts Award journey.

There are 20 'Meet the Musician' places available. These are FREE but will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. Please make sure that you tick the box at the bottom of your booking form to apply.
